Denis Hurley OMI is widely regarded as the most influential South African Catholic in modern times. Throughout his long life he was a prolific letter-writer. From thousands of his letters to family, friends and a wide range of people in powerful positions, 251 have been selected for this volume. The letters reveal much about Hurley as a person and give unique insight into the dramatic events in both church and state in South Africa over seventy years.

Copies of the book will be on sale at a special launch price of R200

Join us for a glass of wine or soft drink before & after the launch

This book launch is hosted by WAACSA (We Are All Church, South Africa)

Where the Spirit is, there is freedom (2 Cor 3:17)

When WAACSA was formed, we adopted Denis Hurley's episcopal motto: "Ubi spiritus, ibi libertas" (2 Cor 3:17)

RSVP by 19 November to help us to plan seating and catering:
